Metamorphose Coaching is a Life and Personal development coaching organisation. They wanted a website which can be easily managed and truly reflect the nature of their business.

This website uses a flash header to give it a distinctive appeal. The website template has been adapted to the Joomla content management system to allow the client to update their content and provide additional information to their clients via news articles, blog entries and many other features.

"As this is my first website development for my own business I found LeoÂ to be extremely patient, Providing me with the guidance and foresight to achieve a website beyond what I ever imagined". His level of expertise and professionalism made the whole experience easy and enjoyable and now I have a powerful tool to really promote awareness of my coaching practice.

Thank you Leo!
